Sharps Compliance Acquires Affordable Medical Waste; Enhances Route Based Services and Density in Indiana

HOUSTON, Texas, October 25, 2021 - Sharps Compliance Corp. (NASDAQ: SMED) (“Sharps” or the “Company”), a leading full-service national provider of comprehensive waste management solutions including medical, pharmaceutical and hazardous, today announced the acquisition of Affordable Medical Waste (“AMW”), a full-service, route-based provider of medical waste solutions to over 500 customer locations in the Midwest, primarily in Indiana. The purchase price for AMW was $2.2 million.

David P. Tusa, President and Chief Executive Officer of Sharps, stated, “Affordable Medical Waste is a very well run and respected medical waste management company serving primarily the Indiana area. This acquisition is consistent with our long-term growth strategy, which includes initiatives to both drive organic growth and acquire complementary route-based providers designed to increase route density and further establish our leadership position as a comprehensive provider of waste management solutions. Our strong balance sheet provides us with this opportunity to execute on our broader acquisition strategy as we continue to work our active pipeline of opportunities.”
